ABSTRACT

This bibliography lists newsletters of interest to those concerned with historic preservation; all titles were selected from those currently being received by the National Trust Library. Each entry specifies the name of the newsletter, its frequency of publication, its publisher, business address, types of articles published, subject areas covered, and, where applicable, titles used previously. More than 60 publications are identified, and, while the majority focus on national issues, a few international newsletters are listed. (FM)

ANNOTATED L... ...IST OF NEWSLETTERS HISTORIC PRESERVAT... ...ON ...ION AND RELATED SUBJECTS

The following is an annc... ...tated list of newsletters useful to those interested in h... ...istoric preservation. Generally, newsletters focusing on ...national issues are included. A few international news... ...letters are also listed. Changes in the titles, publishers, ...content and format can be verified through reference books ...commonly found in public libraries. Two such reference books ...are The Official Museum Directory and The Directory of His... ...torical Societies and Agencies in the United States and Ca... ...nada, both of which give informa-tion on historical organ... ...izations that produce newsletters. The Encyclopedia of Asso... ...ciations gives similar information for associations. Nati... ...nal Directory of Newsletters and Reporting Services is a ...directory of newsletters.

This list was first issu... ...ed in September 1977. This edition, including additions, de... ...tions and revisions was compiled by Gloria Van Order, Spe... ...cial Collections Assistant.

The newsletters on this ...list are selected from those cur-rently received by the N... ...ational Trust library. Comments and suggestions for addi... ...tions would be appreciated and should be sent to the L... ...brarian, National Trust for Historic Preservation, ...t the address above.
